

IT WAS A BRIGHT, COLD DAY IN DECEMBER...

... AND THE CLOCKS WERE STRIKING THIRTEEN.

I WAS POURING MYSELF A CUP OF
VICTORY SERVERY COFFEE WHEN PARSONS
INTERRUPTED ME WITH A QUESTION ABOUT MY WORK.

THIS WEEK THE THRESHER RAN AN EDITORIAL ABOUT
CONSTRUCTION IN THE SOUTH COLLEGES.

BUT I THOUGHT
THE CONSTRUCTION
WAS AT THE NORTH
COLLEGES.

CHECK THE BACK ISSUES.

NO, CONSTRUCTION HAS ALWAYS BEEN AT THE SOUTH
COLLEGES...

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN CONSTRUCTION...

... THERE WILL ALWAYS BE CONSTRUCTION...

... AND I LOVE THE VISION FOR THE 2ND CENTURY.
